

Mission Team Agreement

In order to fulfill the goals set forth for each Mission Team trip, the following guidelines have been established for each team member

- Each member must provide a letter of recommendation from his/her Pastor. If necessary, an interview will be conducted to determine compatibility with the spiritual beliefs of our group.
- Active participation is expected of all team members. Team members must work together to perform any task assigned. Each team member will assist in any area as needed and directed.
- Behavior during mission trips must be consistent with disciplined Christian conduct. In the interest of unity and to avoid conflict, the use of alcohol or tobacco is prohibited.
- Due to the customs and cultural beliefs of the host country, it is necessary to establish a dress code. Team leadership and the host pastor/missionary will determine dress codes. Team members will be asked to change if their attire is not appropriate. For ladies, we ask that shoulders be covered and no shorts above knee length. Swimming attire for ladies at the ocean needs to be shorts w/ sleeved T-shirt. [One of our homes is very near the ocean and there may be time to get your feet (or all of you) wet!]
- Team members are responsible for the entire cost of each trip.
- While in a host country, any member who may be unsure of the propriety of any action should consult with his/her team leader. Some things considered acceptable in the U.S. might be misunderstood or misconstrued by citizens of the host country.

Failure to observe these guidelines could seriously hinder a host missionary or pastor and their ongoing ministries. For this reason, we ask each team member to search his or her heart for God's will before committing themselves to this effort and our team.

I agree to abide by the established rules of conduct listed above if selected for this mission team.
